Mr. James Hickey
President, Washington Chapter
Association of Government Accountants
P. O. Box 423
Washington, D. C. 20044

Dear Mr. Hickey:

This is in response to your letter of 28 January 1981 to the Director of Central Intelligence seeking nominations for the 22nd Annual Awards Program for Outstanding Achievement in the Improvement of Financial Management in Government Service.

Although the Central Intelligence Agency will not submit a nomination this year, we appreciate the opportunity to consider our employees for this award. We support your recognition of outstanding Government employees in the field of financial management and shall continue to seek qualified nominees for future awards.

Sincerely,

Harry E. Fitzwater

January 28, 1981

Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Director:

The Washington Chapter of the Association of Government Accountants (AGA) is announcing its 22nd Annual Awards Program for Outstanding Achievement in the Improvement of Financial Management in Government Service. Through this awards program, AGA, the professional accountants' organization in the Government, seeks to stimulate interest in Government service and improvements in Government financial management.

It is again a pleasure for me to request your organization's cooperation in identifying Government employees who have made outstanding contributions during Calendar Year 1980, and we welcome nominations from your agency. The nominations should be sent to Kenneth M. Winne, Chairman, Awards Committee, Washington Chapter, 4422 Rockcrest Drive, Fairfax, Virginia 22032. Your existing awards program may be used, of course, in making nominations for these awards. The awards will be presented publicly at the regular meeting of the AGA in Washington, D.C., on May 7, 1981.

The nominations in the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan Area will be considered for both the Washington Chapter Award and the National Organization's Distinguished Leadership Award. The nominees outside the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan Area should also be submitted, but they will be considered only for the AGA's National Distinguished Leadership Award. The National AGA Distinguished Leadership Award will be made at the AGA National Symposium in Miami, Florida, during June 29, 30 and July 1, 1981.

Nominations are due by March 13, 1981, and late submissions will be considered by the Awards Committee only if extenuating circumstances in the judgement of the Committee caused excusable delay. An enclosure which describes the program and sets forth criteria for nominations is enclosed. It is requested that this enclosure be given the widest possible dissemination. Any questions concerning the program may be sent to the above address or discussed with Mr. Winne on (202) 275-5199.

The cooperation we have received in the past from your office is greatly appreciated, and we look forward to receiving those nominations which you feel qualify for the described awards.

Sincerely yours,

James Hickey

ANNOUNCING
THE 22ND ANNUAL AWARDS PROGRAM FOR OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT
IN THE
IMPROVEMENT OF FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT
IN THE
GOVERNMENT SERVICE
1980

AWARDS CRITERIA

1. PURPOSE. The purpose of the Association of Government Accountants Awards Program is to accord special recognition of outstanding achievement in developing and improving financial management in the Government Service.
2. TYPE OF AWARDS. THE awards will be honorary in recognition of creative efforts and important contributions toward government financial management objectives. Recognition will be given by the awarding of plaques to outstanding individuals, or groups, who meet the standards stated in these rules and guidelines.
3. SELECTION. From those nominated selections for the awards will be made by the Awards Committee and approved by the Executive Committee.
4. ELIGIBILITY. A. Any person who was employed in the Government Service at the time the work being recognized was performed will be eligible for consideration for an Award. B. The individual must have a record of exceptional competence, integrity and devotion to his field of endeavor and his achievement must constitute a notably outstanding contribution to financial administration, accomplished or completed in Calendar Year 1980. Nominees in the Washington, D. C. Metropolitan area will be considered for both the Washington Chapter Award and the National Organization's Distinguished Leadership Award. Nominees outside the Washington, D. C. Metropolitan Area should also be submitted, but they will be considered only for the AGA's National Distinguished Leadership Award.
5. AREA OF AWARDS. Nominations for awards are requested (see item 7) in the area of financial management as determined by the Awards Committee. This area may include, but is not limited to such activities as:
 - a. Accounting systems
 - b. Auditing
 - c. Budgeting
 - d. Accounting operations
 - e. Programming
 - f. Financial reporting
 - g. Automatic data processing
 - h. Financial management training
 - i. Performance and productivity accounting
6. GUIDELINES AND EXAMPLES OF ACHIEVEMENT TO BE CONSIDERED. In selecting candidates for nomination, agencies should consider accomplishments made to improve financial management planning and control techniques and which, through better use of information, have resulted in more efficient and economical operations. Examples:

- a. Developed a single integrated financial management system, based on a framework of planning and control by activity and area of responsibility, and utilizing costs as a basis of control at operating levels in tandem with fund management and control only at appropriately higher levels.
- b. Conducted a complete functional analysis of agency operations, resulting in an approved activity account structure, by organization unit, for common use in budget formulation, presentation, and execution; and identification of related quantitative data for regular use in projection and performance evaluation.
- c. Developed and documented an accrual accounting system in conjunction with or in contemplation of internal cost-based budgeting, designed to serve through effective reports the informational needs of an existing or planned integrated financial management system.
- d. Developed and initiated a comprehensive system for the overall audit of major agency-wide programs.
- e. Initiated or developed an automatic data processing system to meet the agency's financial and statistical reporting needs.
- f. Developed a comprehensive financial management training program.
- g. Conducted a comprehensive financial management study which resulted in the establishment of more efficient and effective management.

7. NOMINATIONS. Each nomination should be supported by a written justification which should cite specific examples and details. The supporting data should be limited to facts, insofar as possible, rather than opinions or conclusions and should not exceed two type-written pages. The nomination should include the nominee's name, position, title and grade, organizational location, residence or post office address, education, degrees received and any other pertinent information. Agencies should identify awards made under their existing awards program as a basis for selecting nominees.

8. OTHER CHAPTER AWARDS. You may receive requests for nominations from other AGA Chapters in the greater Metropolitan Washington, D. C. Area. Our Regional procedures provide for coordinating among the chapters to assure that one nominee is not selected for the same award in two or more chapters.

9. PRESENTATION. The awards will be presented publicly at the regular meeting of the Washington Chapter of AGA May 7, 1981. The award winners will be guests of honor. As much publicity as possible will be given award winners.

10. DEADLINE. All nominations must be in the hands of the Committee by March 13, 1981. Mailing address as follows:

Kenneth Winne, Chairman Awards Committee
4422 Rockcrest Drive
Fairfax, Virginia 22032
